

Disclosure, Consent, and Refund Policy form

All participants of these EFT sessions are required to agree and sign to the following disclosures, consent policy, and refund policy prior to participating in the EFT tapping.

As we will be using the technique of EFT (Emotional Freedom Techniques) during these sessions, the participant agrees that:

If you use these techniques on yourself or others, you must agree to take full responsibility for your own well-being and you are required to advise your clients, et al, to do the same. Though it has not been proven that EFT is harmful in any way, by participating in this seminar, you are releasing your right to hold E.J. Frank, EFT-ADV Practitioner (who is not a medical doctor) and including Gary Craig, the founder of EFT, responsible and free from claim and causes of action, for any side effects, injuries, damages, or changes in your life as a result of using this process.

Consent:

Some sessions, with announcement made to participant (s), may be recorded via video and/or audio and/or photographic equipment by E.J. Frank and/or representatives of EFT with EJ Frank for purposes of training, education, advertising, promotion, sales, et al for E.J. Frank and EFT with EJ Frank. Please notify E.J. Frank and/or representatives of EFT with EJ Frank if you do not desire to be a part of this process prior to recording. If no alternate arrangement or comment is made by participant (s) prior to the start of recording, the participant (s) are assumed to have given consent with no claim, injury, rights, etc to the materials and/or revenues et al.

It is also understood by the participant (s) that no other recordings in any format may be made of these sessions other than by E.J. Frank and/or EFT with EJ Frank.

Refund policy:

Refunds are generally not considered. As participant (s) are taking responsibility for their own well being and process, refunds for sessions already completed are not typically given. Should the participant find that there are irreparable conflicts such as personality issues with practitioner, et al, the remainder of any unused time paid for may be returned after receipt of a written letter of request.

=====

If there are any questions on this disclaimer, consent, and refund policy form, please contact E.J. Frank at EFTwithEJFrank@yahoo.com.

Thank you and happy tapping!

E.J. Frank, EFT-Adv
EFT with EJ Frank

By checking the box on the initial form, the participant has agreed to these terms. If no form was filled out, the participant (s) are required to sign a paper copy of this form. If participant is under 18 years of age, a consenting adult must sign as well. A faxed, mailed, or emailed copy of the signatures will be required.

Date

Signature

Print Name